Agenda

1. Welcome
2. Review 2017-18 CSIP (Comprehensive School Improvement Plan) and Land Trust Plans
 - a. Overview of budget YTD
Assistants budget still has $27,000 remaining for the school year.
 - b. Review progress toward goal achievement
Lone Peak is on track to meet goals.
3. SNAP Plan (Child Access Routing Plan)
We reviewed the safe walking plan. No changes were made or recommended. It was mentioned that City Council appoints crossing guards, so parents know who to contact should additional crossing guards be needed.
4. Stakeholder Feedback Survey
 - a. Principal Stacy to provide information
Overall score of 3.52 from a 4 point scale. 100 parents responded (give or take a few).
5. White Ribbon Week: February 5-9, 2018
White ribbon week will focus on internet safety and responsible digital citizen. We discussed the school making an announcement each day relating to white ribbon week.
6. Principal Tracy asked for $3,950 of funds from the Cell Tower money (approximately $9,000 in the Cell Tower account) be allocated as follows: $700 for cultural awareness week, and $3,250 for a half year subscription from NewsELA. After discussing the details of each request, Brooke D’Sousa motioned to approve the request; Jennifer Baxter seconded.
7. Brooke D’Sousa motioned to adjourn; Jennifer Baxter seconded.
